ULTIMIZERS, INC.

CURRENT PROJECTS

Give me a break!

And a break in the weather is just what we have had! It has been sunny and warm. So what did we do to take advantage of this? Well the mowing, weed-eating, raking and general outside cleanup happened! The property is looking great! Not only did this get our office looking ready for spring, it gave Lynn and RC some time out of the shop. Thank you both for all your hard work here!

Social Media Updates

It is official!!! Ultimizers is now on LinkedIn and Twitter also! Here are the links to each! Go check us out and follow us!!! Don't forget to go to our Facebook page and like us there too!

WHATS COMING UP NEXT:

We are off to the WMIA/WMMA WIC conference in Hawaii! We are excited to learn some new things while we are there. We are also preparing for the Richmond Expo that will happen in the middle of May. After these two conventions we will focus on the IWF Convention in Atlanta, GA that's coming up in August. We are building a new machine that we will have on display. Come check it out!!
